This tab shows the projects reviewed as part of the mainstream free school pipeline review announced in October 2024 and outcomes announced on 12 December, which assessed 44 projects against the following criteria: evidence of need, value for money and whether the school would provide a unique offer for students who would otherwise not get it, without damaging the viability of existing local schools and colleges.

*Kingston CoE Voluntary Aided Secondary school entered pre-opening in 2017 as part of the department's VA Capital scheme. 90% of the capital funding for the project was committed from the free schools capital budget, with agreement that the local authority would fund the remaining 10%.

**The trust approved for this project has since closed, and another trust will be appointed.

This tab shows planned next steps for special and alternative provision (AP) projects as of 12 December 2025, indicating those where LAs will consider alternative funding and those where we intend to move directly to alternative funding instead of the school. There are 77 special and AP projects under consideration for alternative funding rather than delivery of the proposed school. For most LAs there is a choice whether to continue with the proposed school or accept alternative funding. For the 18 projects where a trust has not yet been appointed, LAs will be given the alternative funding without a choice because the schools are so far from delivery that places can be delivered more quickly with funding. Any schools not on this list are continuing e.g. LA presumption special schools and those much closer to delivery.
